The Market is looking to expand its great team of employees and volunteers! We are seeking a talented chef or cook to help the organization execute our mission to bring good food and good ideas to Frankenmuth and its surrounding communities!

Do you possess a positive attitude? Are you self-organizing and motivated? Do you have a love for creative cooking? Do you want to learn and grow with an amazing organization?

This position is developing. Depending on your skill set and talents, the job may involve your working on the development of great ideas with the Market such as:

- Saturday breakfast preparation for sale to the public.
- Pizza preparation and firing in our wood fired brick ovens.
- Party and luncheon catering.
- Themed dinner concepts, menu development, and execution.
- Cooking class organization, preparation, and teaching.
- Farm-store product preparation.

Your position comes with flexible hours and pay limited only by your potential to produce fundraising results! Hours for this position are flexible with a high preference to candidates available to work regular Tuesdays from 12pm to 5pm, Wednesdays from 2pm to 7pm. During the Spring and Summers,

Saturdays from 8am to 2pm are also a plus! Serve-Safe certification will be required (we may consider training) and your crowd or short order cooking experience will also be taken into consideration. Above all, your positive attitude, creativity, and motivation will be the driving factors in selecting you for our team.
